WEISBROD MATTEIS & COPLEY WELCOMES NEW ASSOCIATE IN PHILADELPHIA

(PHILADELPHIA, PA) – Weisbrod Matteis & Copley PLLC (WMC), a nationally recognized premier litigation boutique, announced today the addition of Matthew Goldstein. He joins the firm as an associate.

Matthew is an experienced litigator who will be based in WMC's Philadelphia office. He will focus his practice on complex commercial and civil litigation in both state and federal courts and will represent clients in insurance coverage, business disputes and financial litigation.

Prior to joining WMC, Matthew practiced at a large commercial litigation firm and represented clients in class action, derivative and mergers and acquisitions litigation in state and federal courts nationwide. During his career, Matthew has secured financial recoveries for his clients in excess of $100 million in cases relating to all forms of corporate misconduct, including excessive executive compensation, misuse and waste of corporate assets, unfair related third-party transactions, failure to ensure compliance with state and federal laws, insider selling and breaches of fiduciary duty.

Matthew earned his J.D. from Rutgers School of Law-Camden, where he served as an associate editor of the Rutgers Journal of Law and Religion. He received his B.A. from The George Washington University, magna cum laude. Matthew is an avid CrossFitter and resides in Philadelphia with his wife and son.
